

JobHazardAnalysis

| Tasks/Steps                                | Hazards Present   | Safety Measures and Controls  |
|--|---|---|
| Put on PPE before working with lab animals | None  | Click here to enter text.   |
| Clean caging                               | Development of allergies from the animals and their bedding.  | Wear proper PPE, including particle mask and latex gloves to reduce the risk of developing allergies when cleaning rodent cages.  |
|  | Scratches, cuts, artottes from the lab animals  | Click here to enter text.   |
| Animal handling                            | Development of allergies from the animals and their bedding.  Scratches, cuts, and bites from the lab animals | Ask for assistance if needle  Handle animals with proper procedure. Pick up rats and mide by the base of the tail, gently pinch crayfish by the carapace just behind thecheliped. Move slowly and calmly around animals.  Use gloves and a particine askwhen handling rats and mice. If you are bitten or scratched clean the wound immediately with warm, soapy water to prevent infection. Fill out an incident report (link in commentTw 6.3382.2 (li4hly)]TJ (s)-4. |
|  |   |   |
|  |   |   |